

Forged in Faith: How Faith Shaped the Birth of the Nation 1607-1776

It motivated America's founding fathers, influenced national independence, and inspired our foundational documents.

Wars raged over it. Men died for it. All for faith.

AND OUT of the SMOKE and GRIT, a NATION WAS BORN.

From the founding of Jamestown in 1607 to the passage of the Declaration of Independence in 1776, Forged in Faith traces the epic colonization of America, the instrumental impact of the Great Awakening revival, and reveals the foundational faith that inspired American independence.

With a compelling mix of dramatized story and action-driven narrative, award-winning historian Rod Gragg chronicles the pivotal and often-overlooked influence of Biblical faith on the making of America. Insightful and historically accurate, Forged in Faith recounts how faith motivated Pilgrims, Puritans, Presbyterians, Baptists, Quakers, Catholics, and Anglicans alike in a unique and fascinating history of early America and the faith that forged a nation.

A former news journalist, ROD GRAGG is an award-winning author and historian whose books on American history, including Covered with Glory, Confederate Goliath: The Battle of Fort Fisher, and the Illustrated Confederate Reader, have earned awards and both critical and popular acclaim. He also lends his expertise as an adjunct professor of history at Coastal Carolina University. Additionally, Gragg is the producer of War Memories—Remembering the Second World War, which aired regionally for ten years on South Carolina's award-winning PBS affiliate. He and his family live in South Carolina.

Following a 12 year run as a long haul trucker, the reader, Maurice England moved to the Chicago area in the fall of 2006 to continue the cultivation of his life long interest in the expressive arts and oral interpretation. A veteran audiophile, Maurice listened to well over 1,000 audio books while on the road and fell in love with the genre. From his past experience in broadcasting, community theater, music performance, and ministry he saw narrating as a means to merge his love for books, ideas, learning, and spiritual evolution with his interest in artistic expression.
